PROBLEMATIZING THE 'PROBLEM' IN 20TH CENTURY FRENCH THOUGHT

Hosted by the European Philosophy and History of Ideas Research Group.

The workshop will explore how a notion of the 'problem' was mobilized in 20th century French philosophy, in various ontologies of problems, in problematization as a philosophical method, and in the deployment of concepts of the problem and the problematic in diverse philosophical programs. Papers will explore the work of Bergson, Marcel, Wahl, Cavaillès, Lautman, Bachelard, Althusser, Hadot, Foucault and Deleuze.

To register, please email Sean Bowden s.bowden@deakin.edu.au
